ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Time _____
By  _____
Deputy
Harris County, Texas

On this day, the Court considered the Motion for Partial Summary Judgment filed by plaintiffs, LEE ANN SARDO and ALEX SARDO. The Court, having considered the Motion, the response thereto, the summary judgment evidence, the pleadings on file, and the arguments of counsel, finds that plaintiffs' Motion is meritorious and is hereby GRANTED.

The Court hereby renders partial summary judgment for plaintiffs, hereby judicially declaring that plaintiffs Vietnamese potbelly pig, Wilbur, is a household pet, which may be kept by plaintiffs at the Subject Property commonly known as 3419 Fir Forest Drive, Spring, Texas and is not in violation of the applicable deed restrictions.

This judgment is not final. It does not dispose of the other pending claims in this case, such as, award of attorney fees and costs under the Texas Uniform Declaratory Judgment Act, which is to be placed on the Court's docket as early as practicable.

SIGNED on this the _____ day of _____, 2012.
